

Luxury Hotels – England

A first class hotel in England will range from the well established luxury hotel in London to an elegant country mansion in the quiet of the countryside. Luxury hotels in England compete with the very best in the world. Here is a selection of the best located near the major tourist centres.

The Ritz

The Ritz

Luxurious hotel, opened 1906, Louis XVI decoration, Palm Court for tea. Two staff for every room. Art Deco Rivoli bar; antique furnishings.

Cliveden House Hotel

Stateley home from 1666, was the home of the Astors, in truly beautiful setting overlooking the Thames river. Luxurious public areas, rooms are equally stunning. Indoor and outdoor pools.

Chewton Glen

House dates from the 1800s, where Captain Marryat wrote novels. Same owners for 40 years. Luxurious. Large rooms, balconies overlook grounds. Indoor pool, spa, sports activities.

The Royal Crescent

Set in sweeping Georgian crescent. Beautiful garden. Impeccable service. Rooms full of antiques, luxurious beds, spa and elegant restaurant.

Le Manoir aux Quat'Saisons

World famous, very refined, classic and modern, surrounded by herb gardens, Japanese ornamental. Luxurious rooms. Restaurant (Raymond Le Blanc) is one of the best British restaurants.

Cliveden House Hotel

The Royal Crescent

Le Manoir aux Quat'Saisons

Hartwell House

Hartwell House

Louis XVIII was exiled here in 1809. Palatial reception rooms, gothic hall, carved stairway, full of antique furniture, fine paintings. Many rooms with four poster beds. Luxurious spa; 'Capability Brown' gardens.

Lucknam Park

Mansion set in 500 acres of parkland and gardens. Panelled library, large bedrooms and drawing rooms are luxurious.

Claridges

Beautiful Art Deco, favourite hotel for European aristocracy in 1800s. Luxurious bedrooms with call buttons to summon service. Beautiful foyer, excellent restaurant (Gordon Ramsay).

Calcot Manor

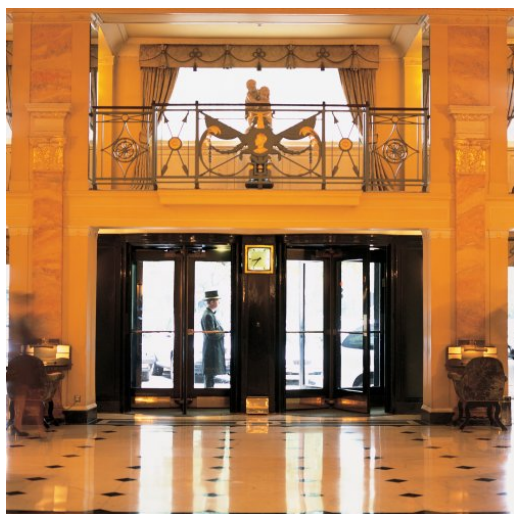

Cotswold farmhouse; ancient barns and stables converted, in gardens and meadowland. Beamed rooms, very comfortable lounge – country house style.

Savoy

World wide fame. Established since 1889 when Richard D'Oyly Carte provided a place to stay for his famous Savoy Theatre. The dry martini was invented in the bar, rooftop pool, Monet painted the Thames view from his room. Elegant, Art Deco features, luxurious bedrooms, upmarket American bar.

Mallory Court

Edwardian house, extensive gardens, public areas with excellent antiques and furnishings. First class, elegant, comfortable restaurant.

The Dorchester

Lower Slaughter Manor

The Dorchester

Luxuriously decorated with marbled and pillared promenade. Rooms in floral English style, with Art Deco deep marble baths. Fabulous Art Deco spa.

Lower Slaughter Manor

Cotswold stone manor which dates back to 1600s, hidden in a deep fold in the Cotswold hills, located in its own private walled gardens. Plaster ceilings, stone fireplaces and antiques add to the beauty. Spacious bedrooms, ornate dining room.

The Berkeley

Discreet luxurious hotel with a panelled and gilded Lutyens lounge. Roof top pool with retractable roof. Beautiful bedrooms, New York style dining.

Ston Easton Park

Ston Easton Park

Set in a beautiful estate. Hotel has expensive antique furniture, paintings providing luxurious ambience. Bedrooms styled 1700s.

Buckland Manor

Country house hotel dating back to the 1200s. Tennis courts, heated pool, putting green, croquet lawn. Rooms filled with antique furniture. Old world serenity, bedrooms luxurious.

Mandarin Oriental Hyde Park

A grand hotel with imposing façade and some of the luxurious bedrooms overlooking Hyde Park. Classical, immaculate, excellent service.

Buckland Manor