

Luxury Restaurants – Ireland

Ireland has many excellent restaurants located in Dublin or in remote locations in the countryside, not far from the major tourist centres. After a day playing golf, fishing or sailing a well prepared meal in a beautiful location completes an excellent day.

All of the restaurants listed below provide very good or even excellent cooking and great service/ambience. Here is a sample:

- Dublin     Patrick Guilbauld
Excellent restaurant located in Georgian town house showing modern Irish art. Wonderful dishes with Irish influence.

L'Ecrivain
Modern Irish food serving mainly game and fish. Very good cuisine.

Thorntons
Modern, stylish with fine views. Mix of Irish, Italian, French

Shanahan's on the Green
Georgian house, luxurious, overlook St. Stephen's Green. Seafood, Irish beef. Great comfort.

La Maison des Gourmets
Very good value meals set with simple décor and cosy environment.
- Kinsale     The Vintage
House dates back to 1600s, cosy, good attentive service. Classical dishes with continental finishes.
- Dingle     The Chart House
Cottage with cosy interior and flint walls. Modern cooking using local ingredients.
- Cashel     Chez Hans
Near Cashel Rock, converted synod hall with stained glass windows. Good meals, local ingredients.
- Killarney     The Old Presbytery
Georgian restaurant, pianist, coal fire, period windows. Traditional cooking.
- Kenmare     The Lime Tree
Former school house from 1800s. Stone walls, modern art, popular. Good and basic meals.
- Baltimore     Customs House
Converted customs house, painted floor, three small rooms. Good seafood.
- Cavan     The Olde Post Inn
Converted post office, stone and brick, beams. Good cuisine, friendly atmosphere.
- Cork     Flemings
Georgian house, local ingredients with French influence, organic vegetables.
- Galway     Vina Maria
Mediterranean dishes with Irish influence. Warm feel, spacious interior, smart.
- Kilkenny     Zuni
Modern, set in old theatre, attracts smart clientele, friendly, good food.
- Tralee     David Norris
Good cuisine, good restaurant.