- Stonehenge

Built over a number of years from 3000 BC, the circle is connected with the sun and seasons. Builders possessed sophisticated knowledge of arithmetic and astronomy. Tools available were stone, wood and bone. The stones were rolled, levered and the base was pulled into a pit to make them upright.

- Bath

England's finest spa resort built by the Romans with a bubbling pool in the Roman Baths (100 AD). The spa has mineral rich natural hot springs. Beautiful Georgian buildings in the Royal Crescent (30 houses) built 1770s, elegant shops, and a bridge lined with shops.

- Warwick Castle

Original Norman castle was rebuilt in the 1300s. A medieval fortress which became one of the finest stately homes. Includes underground dungeon, murder holes to pour pitch onto attackers beneath an armoury, with exhibits and wax works (Madame Tussauds, the owners) to recreate life from the medieval ages.

- Stratford-upon-Avon

Dates back to the Romans now with many Tudor half-timbered buildings. William Shakespeare was born here in 1564 and the town is a literary shrine to Britain's greatest dramatist. Provincial home of the prestigious Royal Shakespeare Company at the RSC Theatre.
