

Golf Vacations – Scotland

Scotland has some of the most beautiful and demanding golf courses in the world. We will plan your golf vacations in Scotland with luxury hotels, luxury restaurants, transportation by chauffeur driven car, plane, helicopter. Scotland is ideal for golf vacations – relaxed and with many other activities for those not playing golf – Scotland provides excellent sailing, horse riding, deerstalking, fishing, hiking, sightseeing.

In Scotland, England, Wales and Ireland there are almost 3000 golf courses. There is a wonderful variety of scenery : woodland, mountains, lakes, seaside, meadowland, heathland. Some of the courses are built on cliff tops, through high sand dunes, across ravines and water. Many of the courses have hosted the Walker Cup, Amateur Championship, PGA Championship, World Match Plan, Ryder Cup and Open Championships.

The courses in Scotland are some of the best in the world. The following courses are rated in the top fifty in Britain and Ireland:

Western Gailes Golf Club
Turnberry Hotel and Golf Club
The Gleneagles Hotel
St. Andrews Old Course
Royal Troon Golf Club
Royal Dornock Golf Club
Nairn Golf Club
Muirfield
Gullane Golf Club
Cruden Bay Golf Club
Carnoustie Golf Courses

Turnberry Hotel and Golf

It is possible to be located in a large city/town and travel to and play on three or four of these courses on different days. Non golf playing members of the group/family can follow other pursuits. Sightseeing, fishing, shopping, sailing, hiking are some of the tours we can arrange.

- Western Gailes Golf Club is a links course, width of two fairways, heather, gorse and par 4s of every length.
- Turnberry Hotel and Golf is a links course, has 8 seaside holes on the cliffs, views of Mull of Kintyre and a carry across the sea.
- The Gleneagles Hotel has three courses built in 1924, designed by Jack Nicklaus in a mountain setting with beautiful views.
- St. Andrews Old Course is a links course dates back to the 15th Century, has the world renowned 17th hole and has double greens on the 14th.

- Royal Troon Golf Club is a links course. It has dramatic views of the Isle of Arran, the shortest hole in Open Championship golf, difficult homeward runs.
- Royal Dornock Golf Club is a links course with first recorded golf in 1616. It has raised greens including the famous 14th.
- Nairn Golf Club is a links course with the 5th almost on the beach. Beautiful views across the Moray Firth.
- Muirfield is a links course, built in 1891 and was responsible for codifying the rules of golf in 1744. It is flat, open to wind and has severe bunkers.
- Gullane Golf Club is a hilly links land course with beautiful views of the Lothians and Firth of Forth (some of the best in golf).
- Cruden Bay Golf Club is a links course in amongst sand dunes, with inspiring views and some blind shots.
- Carnoustie Golf Courses are links courses, probably 500 years old, with no shelter from the wind and probably toughest of all Open courses.
